A. M., from Georgia. He was the medical valedictorian and took for his subject "The Evolution of the Physician." Such eloquence, such oratory, so much sincere and profound declarations, has not been heard at the commencement exercises in the history of the school. He was easily the star of the occasion. He got out from the archives of ancient history the records of the pioneers in medicine. He showed by his beautiful and masterful illustrations how the physician had evolved from the mere "medicine man" to the latest and most scientific stages, such as exist to-day. He captivated his audience, and more than once the audience interrupted him with a vigorous applause. Mr. Bryan was stern and dispassionate in his delivery. In concluding he paid a high tribute to the class, the faculty and last, but not least, to the citizens of Nashville.

The chorus, "Thou, O Lord, Art Our Father" (Sullivan) sung by the Choral Society and played by the orchestra, was one of the most beautiful selections of the evening.

At the conclusion of this, Dean Hubbard announced that Dr. Kuhmler, President of Walden University, would award the diplomas. Dr. Kuhmler then presented the medical department with seventy-five, the dental with eleven, the pharmaceutical with eight and the nurse training with two diplomas. He was assisted by Drs. R. R. Boyd, F. A. Stewart and Dean Hubbard. Just at this point the following were awarded medals and prizes. R. E. Fullilove, of Mississippi. W. A. Lewis, of Tennessee. E. B. Wallace, of Georgia. J. L. Pickens, of Alabama. W. H. Lynch, of West Indies. N. T. Wallis, of Arkansas. and N. T. Cottenn, of Colorado. Dr. Hubbard announced that there were a large number of presents but they would not be given out until after the program was concluded, but he had a few special offerings which were sent by letter to him and which he wished to hand out. C. H. Wheeler, of Mississippi, received a check for $250.00 from his mother. Mr. Tucker, of British Honduras, received a check for $200.00 from his father. Mr. Clyde W. Lee, also from Mississippi, received a check for $300.00. A check for $500.00 was presented to W. S. Martin, of Memphis, Tenn., from relatives.

Dr. Hubbard then introduced the speaker for the occasion. On the introduction of "The Wizard of Tuskegee," he said, "We feel honored tonight to have with us Dr. Booker T. Washington, who has kindly consented to deliver an address to our graduating class. Dr. Washington's school is the best known in the South, and better known than any of the leading schools of the North. His reputation as an educator is not confined to any country. It is an international one. Dr. Washington will speak to you." A loud demonstration by the audience was indulged in. Mr. Washington then spoke in that cool, unequivocal manner which is so characteristic of him. His subject, "The individual, not the race problem," was timely, logical and very appropriate for the occasion. It was mingled with humor and good advice to the graduates.

Presents and prizes were then presented to the large class. Over $1,250 in cash was recorded.

Some very prominent visitors were noted on the platform, together with the Alumni Association of the Meharry Medical College. The music, rendered by the orchestra under the direction of Miss Braden, was superb.

The ushers were very competent. They saw to it that the large audience was comfortably seated and that no one was allowed to find a seat without their aid. E. T. Belsaw was chief usher, assisted by E. L. Toomer, O. U. Brown, H. T. Boulding, O. H. Bassett, J. F. Robinson, I. A. White, Napier Bass, Samuel J. McLeone, J. B. Russell, E. H. Martin, O. N. Goins, R. H. Green, S. F. Milton, C. A. Wilhite, E. W. Benton, J. L. Shirley, A. J. Love, W. A. Willis and F. B. Adair.

We give the class roll for the naughtly-seven:
